Standard Oil Builds Tank

The Standard Oil Company has installed a 16,000 gallon oil tank on the St Michael Trading Company's wharf. Mr. Harris the Company engineer was in charge of the work. This will be a great advantage to the Gas Boat owners and especially the fishermen who have, heretofore, bought their oil by the case, paying top notch prices. Mr. Harris informed us that the Standard Oil Co., will eventually locate here and construct a much larger tank as soon as the business outgrows the present system.

Kaiser Celebrates 55th Birthday

Berlin, Jan. 29.—Kaiser William celebrated his fifty-fifth birthday yesterday. The event was celebrated throughout Germany. All the cities were gaily decorated with the national colors and all business was suspended.

Still Debating The Alaska Bill

Washington, January 29.—The house is still debating the Alaska railroad measure.

All roads lead to the rink.

Wm. Cook Very Low

Recent advices from Seattle report William Cook, former laundry man of Wrangell, to be in a critical condition and his life is despaired of. Mr. Cook has a host of friends here who will be sorry to hear of his condition.

Local Parties Married In Seattle

Miss Milly Sylvester of this place and Mr. Richard Dale of Terra Haute, Ind. were married in Seattle last Saturday. The bride and groom are both well known here. The groom having been connected with the cable office here for some time. The Sentinel joins in congratulations with their many friends.

Regional Bank Hearing Soon

Seattle, Jan. 29.—Secretaries McAdoo and Houston arrived here today for the regional bank hearing.

The resignation of the cabinet was tendered by Premier Pachitch to the king of Serbia. The war minister resigned recently because the ministry refused to pass the war budget.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Latest News Of The Princess Sophia

Vancouver, Jan. 29.—The C. P. R. steamer Princess Sophia, which ran ashore at Blinkinsop Bay a few days ago, will arrive here today, a wireless report from the vessel says that she is seriously damaged, there being a large hole torn in the forward part of the ship.

Seattle, Jan. 29.—The steamer Alli arrived here last night with the passengers which were taken off of the Canadian Pacific Steamer Princess Sophia which ran aground at Blinkinsop Bay in a blinding snowstorm. The Sophia was floated off yesterday, the damage to the steamer were slight and she will resume her run.

Attempts To Substitute Bill

Washington, Jan. 29.—Attempts in the House to substitute the Senate railroad bill for the measure pending has utterly failed for lack of unanimous consent rules. The committee is expected to vote next Wednesday on the rule to make the change. Congressman Humphrey delivered a long speech giving plenty of statistics, extolling the various parts of Alaska which the railroad would benefit.

Fig Fire In Fairbanks

Fairbanks, Jan. 29.—The charred body of Carl Larsen was found in the burned ruins of the Third Ave. Hotel which was destroyed by fire yesterday. The temperature is thirty degrees below zero.

Rebels Bombarding Port Au Prince

Port Au Prince, Jan. 29.—The rebels are bombarding this city and President Oreste and his wife have sought refuge aboard the German Cruiser "Vineta". One hundred and fifty American marines were landed in the city last night from the American warship Montana.

Congress Awaiting Presidents Action

Washington, Jan. 29.—Congress awaits President Wilson's action on canal tolls. The President believes that exemption of American craft violates treaty.

House Will Investigate Strike

Washington, January 29. The house has authorized a sweeping investigation of the strike conditions in Colorado and Michigan.

The currency organization committee has revised the list of dates for hearings on the regional bank proposition, and the meeting will now be held in Portland, Ore., January 30.

Goethals To Be First Governor

Washington, Jan. 29.—Yesterday there was an executive order signed by President Wilson organizing a permanent Canal Zone. Col. George W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama Canal will be the first Governor of the Canal Zone, his nomination will be sent to the Senate in a few days.

Labor Strike Threatening London

London, Jan. 29.—A general labor strike is threatening this city. Hundreds of men employed in the building industries are out on strike and the employees of the street railways have threatened to walk out. It is expected that transportation will be blocked.

Reindeer Getting Scarce In Alaska

Washington, Jan. 28.—The department of Agriculture reports there are less than thirty thousand domesticated reindeer in Alaska and urges stringent measures to prevent willful destruction of the herds, otherwise the meat supply of the extreme north will be jeopardized.

Jerusalem Will Have Trolley Cars

Jerusalem, Jan. 29.—This city is to be modernized in the near future, a French Company has been granted concessions for street car lines and a general power and lighting system to extend over the entire city. When this system is installed Jerusalem will compare favorably with European cities.

South Carolina Rushing To Hayti

Washington, Jan. 29.—The battleship South Carolina is rushing to Port au Prince, Hayti. The rebels are making things interesting and the whole Republic is all excitement.

A Good One On Johnny

J. J. McTague left on the North-western for Petersburg? This is one on John, he rushed down to the boat and got aboard without buying a ticket, thinking the boat would stop at Petersburg, but John was doomed to disappointment, to his sorrow he found he had to go to Juneau. The last heard of John he was stuck there. Moral—don't try to beat the ticket agent out of his 5 per cent commission.

Skating Party To Mill Lake

Knig Johansson took a party over to Mill Lake last Sunday on a skating trip. They reported the wind was blowing down the lake at a thirty mile gait and skating conditions were not the best. Otherwise the trip was enjoyable.

EDITORIAL

Alaska sees her redemption in President Wilson, he has made a profound impression on all Alaskans, and we are all aware that the time has arrived that our territory is about to be opened and developed in a sane and businesslike manner; thanks to our president. Heretofore we have been grossly imposed upon by other administrations who have imposed burdens upon us that were unjust and economically wrong in every degree, but the present administration has the ability and the willingness to look at both sides of the question, and are rapidly making amends for the mistakes of their predecessors. President Wilson is a new type of politician. He talks very much as a man would talk in the process of demonstrating a problem in mathematics, without heat, without bias, theatricalism, he is not a man given to playing to the gallery. Seemingly the only effort he makes is mental effort; an effort devoted wholly to the problem in hand, he has evidently weighed Alaska carefully and has found justice to her people wanting. President Wilson is a thinking man and has handled the Alaska problem in a masterly manner and has won the heart of every true Alaskan. He is a man of unquestionable simplicity and sincerity. He shows such qualities of thoughtfulness, fairness, moderation and accuracy as command the instinctive confidence of all. He impresses us as a man who knows what he is talking about and means what he says and his personality is as compelling as his logic.

Nobody doubts that Wilson is a president of whom his party can well be proud, and in which his country may have implicit confidence. The incisiveness of his remorseless logic indicates plainly enough that he is serving as a free man, whom it would be grotesquely hopeless for any man or any interest to control or influence against his own convictions and sense of duty. He thoroughly understands that the nation owes a duty to Alaska and he has lost no time in trying to adjust the great wrong that has been imposed upon us and has made it plain that while he will act with courage, he will also act with care and precision, he will do nothing foolish, nothing rash, nor anything from impulse or passion, he is a man that can be trusted to be both wise and fair.

A farmer who was carrying an express package from a city mail

local merchant. "Why didn't you buy that bill of goods from me? I could have saved you the express and besides you would have been patronizing a home store, which helps pay the taxes and build up this locality." With characteristic frankness the farmer asked, "Why don't you patronize your home pa-didn't know you had the goods I

George S. Torney, as surgeon-general of the United States Army.

A small island has been formed on Dip Point, and the west coast of Ambrim Island, by the recent earthquake at that place. Cinders are still falling and lava was streaming down the mountain side, when an investigation was made.
